

David Hoge is the Chief of the Grants Section of the WV Emergency Management Division. He has been helping manage FEMA Preparedness Grants for the state since 2004. He was previously the Emergency Services Director for the American Red Cross in West Virginia for 14 years. He is also a Neighborhood Assistance Officer for the Charleston Police Department, a Board Member for WV 211, on the Salvation Army Advisory Board for the Charleston Area Command, the Secretary of the West Virginia Baptist Convention and for the American Baptist Men of West Virginia, very active in his church, and an avid WVU fan. He has logged over 225 games at Mountaineer Field – almost every game since 1986 – where he helps to host legendary tailgates.