

Bio on Elizabeth Disco-Shearer

Current Experience

Elizabeth Disco-Shearer is the CEO of the Disaster Services Corporation for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul of USA (DSC). She oversees the disaster recovery programs of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the United States and American Territories. In her role as CEO, she manages both the volunteer arm of St Vincent de Paul's Disaster relief efforts across the country and oversees a team of core managers and three multi-state office locations. She is a frequent national speaker on Disaster Case Management and regulatory compliance for nonprofit organizations.

Prior Career Work

Elizabeth has over 30 years of senior management experience and is a former College Administrator, Federal Compliance Contractor, Senior Partner of a Non-Profit Consulting Firm, and a nonprofit administrator.

Volunteer Experience

She has served on many Non-Profit Boards including being President of the Texas Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster, President of the Texas Association of Financial Aid Administrators, President of the Denton County League of Women Voters, President of NE Dallas Citizens Emergency Response Team, and others. Elizabeth is currently Chairperson of the Board of the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster in Alexandria, VA. Ms. Disco-Shearer volunteers as a Citizens Emergency Response member with the City of Dallas, Office of Emergency Management, and is a member of the International Women in Emergency Management. She commutes between Dallas, TX and Washington, DC for work, and originally hails from Logan, West Virginia.